

EneRace

ATESS charging system includes operational platform and App. Through App, operational platform and charging equipment connection, it provides the best use experience for users with different roles.

Features

Quick and easy overview

Real-time monitoring

Data analysable

Detail report downloadable

Multi-roleco-management

Online control and maintenance

	EneRace
Charging system	The charging system includes operational platform and App. Through App, operational platform and charging equipment connection, it provides the best use experience for users with different roles.
Operational platform	Operational platform mainly for operators to provide user management, monitoring and fault early warning, RFID card charger management functions such as service.
Mobile APP	Mobile App for end users to provide remote monitoring, charging in advance, peak valley charging function such as service.  